

FRENCH TEACHER OPPORTUNITY

Position Summary:

Thunder Bay Christian School (TBCS) is seeking an enthusiastic part-time French teacher to join our team. As a teacher at TBCS, you will have the opportunity to positively impact students, both personally and academically. We take pride in delivering results that matter to all our students, and our teachers play a key role in the journey.

This individual also:

- loves Jesus, is committed to following His leading, and enjoys pointing others to Him
- enjoys teaching children and teens in highly relational ways, leading by example, fostering a wholesome class atmosphere to guide in the maturing and development of the whole student, so that they may grow in awareness of their purpose and identity as a child of God
- believes in the purpose and potential of Christian education at an independent school; is a team player amongst the staff and community

Accountabilities:

- Candidates must be confident teaching French from grades 3-8. As well, Grade 9 French capabilities would be appreciated but are not necessary to be considered.

Qualifications:

- OCT (Ontario Certified Teacher) and/or a CSTC (Christian School Teachers Certificate)
- Previous experience working with students is an asset.
- Excellent French oral and written skills.

Job Types: Part-time, Permanent

This position may be combined with other teaching positions at TBCS

Anticipated hours: 16 hours per week
